Abstract

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Communist Party of China. Looking back on the journey, from nothing to have; Looking at the mountains and rivers, brilliant. One hundred years of wind and rain, one hundred surging forward, one hundred years galloping forward, one hundred years, it is easy to think of the sentence rang through the Chinese summer poem: "a number of romantic figures, but also look at today!" The great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation has been a dream pursued by the Chinese people since modern times. It is also the historic mission and realistic goal for which Chinese Communists were born. The people are the greatest source of support for the CPC in its governance. What makes the CPC thrive is that it complies with the people's will, while what makes it ineffective is that it disobeys the people's will. To seek happiness for the people and rejuvenation for the nation is the original aspiration of Chinese Communists. As General Secretary Xi Jinping has said, "Without the COMMUNIST Party of China, where is socialist China, where is socialism with Chinese characteristics and where is the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation?" History shows that the CPC has found the right way to build socialism and endowed the Chinese nation with new vitality. On the road to the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation -- the Communist Party of China will certainly "be able" and "be able".

1. Introduction

This has always been a strong guarantee for our Party to overcome all difficulties and obstacles, to rise from weakness to strength and from having nothing to become a party of one hundred years old. Throughout the history of political parties in the world, there is no other political party that has the determination to correct its mistakes and carry out revolution and self-revolution like the COMMUNIST Party of China. Putting people first and always bearing in mind that seeking happiness for the Chinese people and rejuvenation for the Chinese nation is the inexhaustible motive force driving the CPC forward. "He who does not seek eternity is not enough for a time; Those who do not think in terms of the overall situation are not enough to think in terms of a single area. "The unswerving strategic pursuit and confidence in the path of the COMMUNIST Party of China have inspired the Chinese people's expectations and confidence in the future, and have gathered the Chinese nation's inexhaustible strength for unity and struggle. Looking back on the past, the years of construction and reform paved the way for a Renaissance. Looking into the future, the dream of basically realizing socialist modernization and building China into a great modern socialist country inspires people's passion for struggle. Li Dazhao, the pioneer of the revolution, once said: "The golden age is not behind us, but before us; Not in the past, but in the future. China has both a blueprint for the future and the ability to achieve its goals. What is more, China has the ambition to "do what we say we will". From the perspective of realizing the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation, today's achievements are only a prelude to the future, and we will continue to make new achievements.

2. Organization of the Text

2.1. Live for the People and Thrive for the People

What is a party that serves the people? For Chinese Communists, it means "giving half a quilt to the common people". The people nurtured the Soviet Area, border area and liberated area with millet, supported the agrarian revolutionary war, Anti-Japanese War and liberation war with their shoulders, and stained the Party flag, military flag and the national flag of New China with the blood of countless children. The Communist Party of China comes from the people, lives for the people, and thrives on the people. It must always share the people's heart, joys and sorrows, and work with them in solidarity. As for a political party, its values are based on its political stand and the views of the masses. Fundamentally speaking, it is a watershed to distinguish materialist and idealist historical views, and a touchstone to judge Marxist political parties, that is, whether they always stand in the position of the broadest masses of the people by whom they believe, depend on and for. In the process of ruling of the communist party of China, and always put the people in the highest position in the heart, to respect the principal position of the people, play to people's pioneering spirit, in the process of making policy, the implementation of policy, fully listen to the opinions of the people, learn from the wisdom of the people, from the crowd, to the masses, the party's right into people's conscious action. The key to the CPC's success in promoting socialist construction, reform and opening up, completing the building of a moderately prosperous society in all respects, and winning the fight against poverty in all respects lies in the people's leading role. The communist party of China depends on its political advantage, organization, close ties with the masses, concentrate the power of the social various aspects, to inspire the initiative and creativity of the people, and win the victory of the new-democratic revolution and socialist construction victory, the victory of the all-round reform and opening-up, build a well-off society in an all-round way of the victory of the war victory, winning new crown outbreak. The 13th Five-Year Plan has come to an end, and the 14th five-year Plan has been fully launched. China's development speed is getting faster and faster, the voice of China is getting more and more important, and the life of the Chinese people is getting better and better. All this is inseparable from the leadership of the CPC. The CPC serves the interests of the people. Since its birth, the CPC has taken serving the people wholeheartedly as its fundamental purpose, seeking happiness for the people as its primary goal, and people's interests as the starting point and end-result of all its activities. Because the Communist Party of China does not have its own special interests, it can take the realization of the people's interests as the ruling orientation and pursuit.

No one thought that in just 28 years, after bloody battles, they had overthrew the reactionary rule of imperialism, feudalism and bureaucrat-capitalism, and established the People's Republic of China, which had made the Chinese people stand up and changed the joke that a country could be ruled by a few cannons. During the war, facing the severe situation of the Kuomintang reactionaries' mad encirclement and suppression, MAO Zedong calmly said: "What is the real bastion of iron? It is the masses, the millions of people who genuinely and sincerely support the revolution. This is real iron. It can't be broken by any force, not at all." The Communist Party, which strives wholeheartedly for the interests of the people, enjoys the wholehearted support of the people. After the founding of new China, in the face of sudden threat, economic blockade, political isolation, diplomatic sanctions, the communist party of China firmly relying on the people, adhere to the principle of independence, self-reliance, breaking the war quickly, creatively completed the transition from a new-democratic to a socialist society, realize China's greatest and most profound changes. Relying on the people and relying on the people, we have embarked on a new journey to realize the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation on the path of socialism.

2.2. Keep Exploring, Keep Exploring

When it comes to the exploration of Chinese Communists, it is full of hardships and twists and turns. From "standing up" to "getting rich" and then to "getting strong", the efforts of generations of people with lofty ideals have been poured in. In the past few decades, China has caught up with western capitalist countries in the past several hundred years. We have delivered one "answer sheet" after another to the satisfaction of the people, and guided the progress of the Century-old Party with lofty beliefs and strong convictions. Since the 18th National Congress of the CPC, socialism with Chinese characteristics has entered a new era. The Communist Party of China has led the people in solving many difficult problems that they had long wanted to solve but had not. It has accomplished many important things that were once wanted to be done but failed to be done. Historic changes and achievements have been made in the cause of the Party and the country. Today, the great renewal of the Chinese nation has shown unprecedented bright prospects. The achievements made in completing the building of a moderately prosperous society in all respects, comprehensively deepening reform, comprehensively governing the Party with strict discipline, and comprehensively governing the country according to law have benefited everyone. History speaks volumes. Over the past century, the CPC has always pursued lofty ideals and made great contributions to the country, the nation and the people. The reasons why the Chinese people choose and follow the CPC are clear. No matter how the environment may change and how serious the challenges may be, the COMMUNIST Party of China remains true to its original aspiration and always bears in mind its mission.

Taking the recent 14th five-year Plan as an example, the year 2020 will be the brightest period for securing a moderately prosperous society and a crucial period for making decisive achievements. In the face of the complex international situation and the arduous tasks of domestic reform, development and stability, especially the severe impact of the COVID-19 epidemic, the CPC Central Committee with Comrade Xi Jinping at its core has stayed true to its original aspiration and kept its mission firmly in mind. It has rallied the whole Party and the people of all ethnic groups in China to forge ahead with perseverance, innovation, and dedication to advance the cause of the Party and the country. The goals and tasks of the 13th Five-Year Plan are nearing completion, victory in finishing building a moderately prosperous society in all respects is within sight, the Great renewal of the Chinese nation has taken a big step forward, and Socialist China stands tall in the East with an even more majestic posture. The whole Party and the people of all ethnic groups in China should redouble their efforts to win the battle against poverty, complete the building of a moderately prosperous society in all respects and realize the first Centenary goal on schedule, so as to lay a solid foundation for starting a new journey to build a modern socialist country in all respects.

Into a period of 14 or 15, we should be holding the great banner of socialism with Chinese characteristics, thoroughly implement the party's in the 19th and the 19th session of 2, 3, 4, fifth plenary session of the spirit, adhere to marxism-leninism, MAO zedong thought, deng xiaoping theory and "three represents" important thought, the concept of scientific development, xi jinping, the new era of socialism with Chinese characteristics as a guide, fully implement the party's basic theory, basic line, basic strategy, overall promote economic construction, political construction, cultural construction, social construction and overall layout for the construction of ecological civilization, Coordination promote the all-round construction of socialism modernization country, deepening reform and overall strategic layout of the rule of law, comprehensive governing party unswervingly implement the innovation, coordination, new development of the green, open, sharing ideas, adhere to seek improvement in stability work always tone, with the development of high quality as the theme, to deepen the reform of the supply side structural as the main line, to reform and innovation as fundamental dynamics, the good life is to meet people's increasing need for fundamental purpose, overall development and security, speed up the construction of modern economic system, speed up the building to the domestic large cycle as the main body, domestic and international binary mutual promotion of the new development pattern, We will modernize China's governance system and capacity, ensure steady growth of the economy and social stability and harmony, and make a good start in building a modern socialist country in all respects.

2.3. Withstand the Test, Keep the Original Heart

The Communist Party of China has taken Marxism as its guiding ideology since its founding. This is because the Chinese Communists are keenly aware that neither "complete westernization" nor "learning from the west as a matter of practice" can solve China's problems. Only by following the guidance of Marxism and taking the socialist road can China have a hope and a way out. On the contrary, one of the important reasons for the downfall of the Communist Party in the former Soviet and Eastern countries was the long-term ideological rigidity. The theory failed to keep pace with the development of The Times and could not only guide the new practice, but also could not even explain the reality. Since its birth, the Communist Party of China has been emphasizing the vanguard nature of the Party and has strict requirements on the recruitment of party members. In recent years, our Party has demanded to control the total quantity, optimize the structure, improve the quality and play a role in the recruitment of Party members. We have further strengthened education and inspection of applicants for Party membership to ensure the quality of Party members.

Faith is a grand theme and a profound theory, which is embodied in every word and deed of every Party member. Ideal belief is communist spirit "calcium", ideal belief is not firm, spirit can "lack calcium", can get "rickets". Some people for the Communist party members but doubt the spirit of Marxism, communism, socialism is not through, think that the ideal is too far to talk about faith is too esoteric, talk about the purpose is too broad, are willing to muddlehead, believe in the supreme value of money; More people "in cao Ying heart in Han", family members, property transfer abroad, ready to "jump ship" at any time. During the period of the new-democratic revolution, The Chinese Communists, with Comrade MAO Zedong as their chief representative, successfully rectified various erroneous tendencies within the Party, in particular, rectified dogmatism through the Yan 'an Rectification Movement, so that the ideological line of seeking truth from facts was deeply rooted in the minds of the people and our Party became increasingly mature. During the revolutionary period, our Party also developed a fine style of criticism and self-criticism. During the agrarian revolution and the War of Resistance against Japan, our Party severely punished corrupt members within the party. The story of Liu Qingshan and Zhang Zishan, who were shot in the early days of the founding of new China, is more widely known. All this shows that the Communist Party of China is incompatible with corruption. Since the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China (CPC), the CPC has been brave enough to carry out self-revolution. With the determination to cut one's own wrist, turn the blade inward, and scrape one's bones to heal one's wounds, the CPC has carried out four in-depth themed education from top to bottom in the CPC. Since the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China (CPC), the CPC Central Committee with Comrade Xi Jinping at its core has been keenly aware of the problems within the Party and has stressed that "forging iron must be self-reinforcing". The CPC Central Committee from acting on eight rules, the mass line education practice to the entire journey instruction, to take the lead to carry out the "three steady tightening real" special education and "two learn how to make a" learning education, with a "stepping stone left, catch the iron has a mark" the spirit of real, chew bones, let people to see the governing party's unprecedented efforts, corruption "a tiger" answer lok ma, breaking the "punishment doesn't go to the doctor".

Political parties exist in the society, which provides them with space for activities and is inevitably affected by the society.No matter when the party is not pure in politics, ideology, organization or style of work, it always exists objectively.The existence of problems is not terrible, the key is to have the consciousness to face up to the problem and the courage of the blade to the inside.One of the key reasons why the Communist Party of China has been able to grow from weak to strong is that it will never be complacent, rigid or stagnant, dare to turn the blade inward, dare to scratch the bone and heal the wound, and dare to break the wrist.The 18th party congress in particular, the party central committee with comrade xi as the core have the courage to face the problem, eliminate all damages the party's advanced nature and purity of the factors, removing all erosion of the party's healthy body of the virus, strengthening the party self purification, self-improvement, the ability of self innovation, self-improvement, to ensure that the party always has strong vitality and a strong fighting capacity, always be pioneer era, national backbone.

2.4. Theoretical Innovation and Development Will Never be Relaxed

The Communist Party of China is a proletarian party with Marxism as its guide to action. It always attaches great importance to building the Party ideologically and strengthening the Party theoretically.It is a distinctive feature and glorious tradition of the Communist Party of China to boldly carry out theoretical innovation, keep adapting Marxism to China's conditions, and open up new horizons for The development of Marxism.The key to our party's success after all the trials and tribulations lies in its continuous innovation in practice and theory.It can be said that the struggle of the Party is a history of theoretical innovation, theoretical innovation is the Chinese Communist Party forge ahead of the inexhaustible motive force.In-depth study history of the party, the new Chinese history, the history of reform and opening up, the socialist history, is to understand the implication of marxism stand point method and the theory of socialism with Chinese characteristics, practice logic of origin, development, deep understanding of our party led the Chinese people of all ethnic groups from victory to brilliant thought source, understanding why the communist party of China "to", why "line" of marxism, socialism with Chinese characteristics, why the "good".

Reviews the course of theory innovation of the communist party of China can be found that the communist party of China are able to develop and lead the people to create great achievements, a root cause is always adhere to the guidance of scientific theory, constantly promote sinicization of marxism, implement the party's guiding ideology and basic theory of advancing with The Times.This is not only the intrinsic requirement for the development of Marxist theory, but also the practical need for the CPC to build and strengthen the Party.From the theoretical level, Marxism is the product of practice.The tree of Life of Sinicized Marxism is always standing in the forefront of The Times, reflecting the requirements of The Times, leading the trend of The Times, and guiding new practice with innovative theoretical achievements.From a practical point of view, the purpose of learning is all about application.Time is the mother of thought, practice is the source of theory.If you want to win the initiative in the era of rapidly changing, win victory in the great new struggle, we must insist on, on the basis of basic principle of marxism, in a more broad vision, a more long-term view to think and grasp the future development of a series of major strategic issues, continuously expand new field of vision in theory and make a new generalization.

The century-old struggle of the Communist Party of China is a history of holding the banner high and making arduous explorations. It is also a history of forging the soul and strengthening the Party by theory. During this historical process, the CPC has unremittedly armed the whole Party with theoretical innovations, guided the development of the cause of the Party and the country with ideological and theoretical development, and ensured that the Party's theory and practice always reflect the characteristics of The Times, have a good grasp of regularity and are full of creativity. The world today is undergoing profound changes unseen in a century. China is now in a crucial period to realize the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. The Communist Party of China is leading the people in a great struggle with many new historical features and facing many new tests of governance. This requests us theory of growing self-awareness, self-confidence, keep pace with The Times to promote the theoretical innovation, insist on a new era xi thought arm the whole party, the education of the people's socialism with Chinese characteristics, the study and implement the party's innovation theory with marxist basic theory study, learning to learn history of the party, the new Chinese history, the history of reform and opening up, the socialist history, thought consciousness and conscious action of the implementation. As long as we are firm in our ideals and convictions and make unremitting efforts under the guidance of scientific theories, the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation will surely be successfully realized.

3. Conclusion

The mammoth history in one hundred, our party being weak or strong, whether in prosperity or adversity, always does not change his mind and unswervingly, unity, lead the people through appears at great sacrifice, passed one and a world is rare, created an another miracle of electricity-that, wrote a song and a song heroic epic; We found a rural party unity to lead the people to encircle the cities, the armed seizure of power in the right direction, through 28 years of fighting, defeat Japanese imperialism, overthrew the kuomintang reactionary rule, completed the new-democratic revolution, established the law of the People's Republic of China, realize China from several thousand years of feudal autocracy to people democracy's great leap forward, for the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation has cleared the fundamental obstacles; Our Party has united and led the people in completing the socialist revolution, establishing the socialist system, and promoting socialist construction. This has made a great leap forward for the Chinese nation from continuous decline in modern times to sustained prosperity and strength, and laid a solid foundation for the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Our party unity to lead the people to great new revolution of reform and opening-up, opened up the road of socialism with Chinese characteristics, formed the system of theories of socialism with Chinese characteristics, improve the system of the socialism with Chinese characteristics, the development of socialist culture with Chinese characteristics, make China catch up with the trend of The Times in big strides, opened up a bright future for the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Today, the nation that once had insufficient food and clothing is about to embark on an all-round well-off life. Once impoverished China, striding towards prosperity and strength. The Chinese nation has made a historic leap that has attracted worldwide attention and written a new chapter of a new era with an all-embracing spirit.
